NTBA Update
August 2020

Message from the President

Dear Members,

As always, I hope you are all safe and well. I'm pleased to report that the NTBA continues to be busy in this pandemic world, and we are fortunate that we have been able to continue providing services to you, our members, and our community despite the challenges at hand.

Last Month's Events

Last month the NTBA hosted the Judicial Candidate Forum. Originally planned as a live event, Adria Dickey, James Loper, and Tiffany Hanson did a brilliant job of quickly changing gears to make it an online presentation and reaching over 400 people so far. Read more about it and get the link to watch the forum below.

We also raised over $600 to purchase lunch for the men and women on the front line of the fight against Covid-19 at Advent Health. Carrollwood Country Club will be making the delivery later this month. Big thanks to Angie Rosello for her hard work in getting this together, and to everyone who donated!

This Month's Events

TOMORROW - Do you feel like you've got your practice and everything else completely under control and Pandemic Practice is a piece of cake? Well, this month's virtual luncheon is not going to be for you. But for the rest of us, I'm pretty sure Dineen Wasylik of DPW Legal will have some great tips and tricks for everything from video conferencing to balancing work life and home life, even when they're all blending together. It's this Thursday, so make sure you register at the link below.

NEXT WEEK - For Attorneys - We will have our usual Zoom Round Table a week from Thursday. Also, the NTBA board has passed new rules for the listserv, and we'll be sending those out to all listserv users in the coming days.

Other notes...

Last week the NTBA Board considered and voted unanimously to keep all events virtual through September. Beyond that, as we're all too aware in this sixth month of pandemic closures and up-and-down numbers, it is anyone's guess.

The current state of the world reminds me of something from law school. One of my professors always closed his lectures with this: "Questions? Comments? Cries of joy or anguish?" It seems like such a fitting saying for our current times, doesn't it? Anyway, if you have any of the above and I can help in some way, even if it's just to listen or chat, feel free to send me an email or give me a call. jkrukar@kmf-law.com

JUDICIAL CANDIDATE FORUM

On July 9th, the NTBA hosted a Judicial Candidate Forum for the 2020 Election. We typically put on this forum to get the word out on the judicial candidates running for judicial service. While Covid-19 changed the logistics, with the help of Adria Dickey, James Loper, Tiffany Hanson, and Jared Krukar, we were able to host our judicial candidate forum via Zoom! This year there are 6 contested races in judicial elections for Hillsborough County. The forum was recorded and has been uploaded to our website. In the video, each candidate had 6 minutes to answer 6 pre-approved, key questions that would better assist the voters in making their decision. We recorded each candidate's answer and have included their written answers to our questions as well. If you have not had the opportunity yet, we encourage you to check out the video and the candidates' written answers on our website and help us spread the word.

You can find the link to the forum, as well as the candidates' written answers and links to their websites, here:
